ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Tara Furman is the founder and CEO of Knowing God Ministries, a 501(c)3 tax exempt non-profit ministry established in 2010. She grew up in Cary, North Carolina, where she married her high school sweetheart, Tim, whom she met in junior high school! Tim and Tara live with their children Will (12) and Caroline (10), not to mention Jake, their yellow Lab (who should have been named Marley!).

Tara has written and self-published several books:

A Prayer Journal, Intimacy with God: Your Daily Guide to Prayer

Two Seven-Week Bible Studies: Intimacy with God and Created for Purpose

A Christmas Keepsake Journal

In 2007, Tara started a speaking ministry that has grown from local to regional to national in scope. In 2011, Tara began a statewide Women's Discipleship luncheon called Iron Sharpens Iron. She manages a volunteer staff of 7 and a Board of Directors of 8. On her website, www.knowinggodministries.net, she offers resources vital for a woman's spiritual growth, and a devotional blog that suggests practical ways to know God personally in everyday life.

Tara's favorite things include spending time with her extended family and close friends. She loves to eat her husband's amazing, creative cooking, because he is a "grill master." She also enjoys her kids' sporting activities. On any given day, you can find Tara in the carpool line at their school, feverishly wrapping up part one of her "workday" and mentally preparing for part two of that day while she savors her "priority blessings," Tim, Will and Caroline.

INTRODUCTION

Have you ever said to yourself, “There’s got to be more to life than this?” Have you ever wondered what God’s purpose is for your life, or if God even has a purpose for your life?

Cover to cover, the Bible reveals that God uses very ordinary people to accomplish extraordinary tasks. Their résumés by today’s standards would probably never have qualified them for jobs of great significance. In fact, the people God used in Bible times were very average people.

- A man named Noah built a boat and preserved the entire human race.
- A man named Abraham believed God, and provided the model for sacrifices and ceremonies that pictured for the world God’s terms for man to have a right relationship with Him. Abraham’s descendants would also record God’s revelation to man in what we call the Bible.
- A dreamer named Joseph preserved the remnant of Israel when a famine threatened the people with annihilation.
- An idolatrous Moabite woman named Ruth became the great grandmother to David, one of the most successful kings prior to Christ’s birth.
- A young shepherd boy named David would become one of Israel’s greatest kings.
- A teenage girl named Mary became the mother of Jesus.
- Unschooled, ordinary men like Peter and John forever changed the world as we know it.
- A murderer named Paul became one of the most successful missionaries the world has ever known.

I’m merely scratching the surface here. But one thing all of these people had all had in common: they walked with the God of the Universe each day. They were not perfect, but they were plugged in to the God of the Universe so that they could know what He wanted them to do in order to live lives that were purposeful.

The God of the Bible is the same God today. There’s more to life than mere existence and going through the motions each day. Wherever you may live, in whatever corner of the world you may “do life,” God has a specific purpose and a particular plan for YOU! Despite your past, your present circumstances, or your “stuff,” God did not create you to muddle through each week, month, and year in mundane living. And He did not intend for you to content yourself with pew-sitting mediocrity once a week, either. Instead, the God of the Universe has destined each one of us to live a life that counts, a life of significance and meaning.

FINISH THE RACE

A life of purpose will not require a fancy degree from a prestigious university. It will not require a ton of money for an initial investment. But make no mistake, finding and living our God-ordained purpose in each season of our life will require hard work, determination, resolve, and wholehearted commitment. But, dear sister, know deep within your being that there's a thrill and an excitement you can only have when you are engaging in what you are created you to do. Nothing this world has to offer can substitute for that. In fact, the peace, joy and contentment that come from living in God's purpose for us cannot be described or even articulated adequately.

There will be days when you may want to quit. Maintaining purpose will require swimming upstream in a downstream world – not just for a week or a month or a season or for the duration of this study – but as a lifestyle. This study is intended to bring shifts in thinking; shifts in priorities and in our perspective on life. There will be times you will want to put the study down because it requires you to address issues or circumstances that have long been swept under the rug. But don't do that, or you may miss out on all God has for you.

God never deals with us or leads us to make changes to give us boring, restricted lives. He wants to lead us to freedom, purpose, meaning and significance, and ultimately on a journey of lifetime that will forever impact our corner of the world and the generations to come!

SUGGESTIONS FOR STUDY

This is a lifestyle study. Accordingly, you should go through it slowly and methodically. Allow the passages of Scripture to become a part of the fabric of your being. If you are taking this in a small group setting, you may want to consider breaking up the weeks to go through 1 week in 2.

The Prayer Journal, Intimacy with God: Your Daily Guide to Prayer is suggested for use with this study. Whatever day of the week you may be working on this study, turn to that page. Write the date. Record any points from the day's study that you desire to remember or review. If God blows you away with revelation that He desires you live out each day, turn to your "Listening" Section. Write the date on the left side and what God has said on the right side. Writing it down helps us to remember and makes it more likely for us to follow through with real obedience to what we've studied.

REVIEW EACH DAY

When we close the cover of our study each day without allowing the Lord to solidify what we've learned and what He wants us to apply, we miss out on hearing how He wants us to respond. Take time each day to review what you've underlined and to review the passages of Scripture that were meaningful. Quite often, this is God speaking to you. Don't miss what He wants to say and how He wants you to apply what you've learned.

REVIEW AT THE END OF THE WEEK

The goal of this study is to bring about a lifestyle shift and a shift in thinking. It's important for the material to become a part of your everyday thinking. Take time to review what you've learned each week. This will be the key to understanding how God wants you to respond to what you've studied. It's your willingness to respond to these promptings that opens the door for a purposeful life.

YOU WERE CREATED FOR A PURPOSE

The God Who sits enthroned above the circle of the earth¹ –

Who created the starry hosts...²

Who calls them by name...³

Who does GREAT things beyond our understanding...⁴

Who made the sand a boundary for the sea, an everlasting barrier it cannot cross...⁵

The ONE Who spoke the Universe into existence...⁶

Is God Most High!

He is the Ancient of Days.

He is the One Who created the seasons.⁷

He is the Self-Sustaining One and answers to no one!⁸

He is the Beginning and End; the Alpha and the Omega; the First and the Last.⁹

He is the One Whom every human being will stand before one day.¹⁰

He is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

The God of Moses, Joshua, Deborah, Job, Esther, Ruth, Samuel, David, Mary, Peter and Paul.

This same God who created the heavens, the Earth, the sea and everything in it, is also the God who engages His creation in concrete, definitive and personal ways.

Since 2003, I have come to know this God – not from afar, but up close and personally. Although I became a child of God in 1980, it's only been in the last 10 years that I've really come to know Him personally.

CREATED FOR PURPOSE

The relationship I have with the God of the universe did not come from sitting on a pew on Sunday mornings.¹¹ Nor did this relationship come from attending Bible study each week. This relationship did not happen by serving relentlessly at church functions.¹²

I found the God of the Universe when all alone ... Catapulted into faith by painful, dark seasons – when all I had were my tears, a shard of faith, a Bible and God Himself.

So on those dark days, instead of running to the phone or email or to People magazine or busying myself with something to take my mind off of my circumstances¹³, I ran to the Bible ... Hoping and praying that this collection of sacred books from antiquity would:

Provide the answers and solutions I so desperately needed.

Help me to find the God I was raised to know...

Provide hope on days that seemed hopeless...

And you know what happened? Miracle upon miracle: in those hard places, at every turn, in every need and with every worry, ANSWERS CAME! Not just any answers, either. Answers came that gave concrete, definitive guidance and peace. And it wasn't just circumstantial peace that's fleeting because it's based upon your situation; it was peace deep within the core of my being. Often my circumstances stayed the same, but I was different.

Why?

Because I met the God of the Bible. And dear sister, He is real! He's not just a "Sunday morning God" – He is real and personal. God is a knowable and approachable God. Just as Moses encountered God in a burning bush¹⁴ in the desert, I encountered God in a chair in my living room.

There were many days when it seemed as if the words on the pages of this old, old book had been written specifically with my pain and circumstances in mind. I've learned that this is one of the awesome things about God. He speaks in plain language right off the pages of Scripture. It is one of the most mind-blowing things to me that the God of the universe is willing to speak intimately, personally and practically to me and whoever else is willing to truly seek Him.

During this painful season, it was if something inside of me clicked. For the first time in my adult life, despite my past and despite my lukewarm, mediocre faith, I realized that God is a very real Person, who knows and loves me intimately. And in the midst of some very hard circumstances, I learned that Jesus works and that He has and continues to have a good plan and purpose for my life.

In the last 10 years, as I've learned to walk with God on a daily basis, starting in very ugly, grim circumstances, He has taken the bad and used it for good by allowing me to impact my corner of the world in profound

¹¹ Please hear my heart, I'm not advocating NOT going to church.

¹² It was in these places that the desire grew from within to know Him personally for myself. Not through someone else's relationship with Him.

¹³ We didn't have facebook back then or I would have been on facebook.

¹⁴ Exodus 3:4

ways. The things I will share in this Bible study have come firsthand from the overflow of my relationship with Him. He has empowered this very simple, ordinary woman to:

- Self-publish a homemade Prayer Journal that helps women grow in prayer and organize their prayer lives.
- Self-publish a Bible Study that has transformed hearts, lives and marriages by helping women to know the God of the Universe.
- Self-publish a Christmas Journal that helps people keep and celebrate the TRUE meaning of Christmas .
- Start a non-profit Women’s Ministry called Knowing God Ministries, whose mission is to help women KNOW God personally – not just know about Him.
- Begin a statewide Women’s Discipleship luncheon called Iron Sharpens Iron.
- Start a speaking ministry that has grown from regional to statewide to national opportunities.
- Manage a volunteer staff of 7.
- Manage a Board of Directors of 8.

I’ve done those things while being a wife, a mom, and a “Chief Home Officer.” Please know that I am very ordinary. I did not score well on the SAT; I had to work very hard to maintain a “B” average in school. In fact, apart from God, I tend to be insecure and introverted.

The reason I share this with you is not to boast or brag, but to encourage you that God has a specific purpose and plan for everyone He has created. Not just for me, but for you too! Regardless of your past; regardless of your present circumstances – God has a plan for your life! And it is a good plan. It is His desire that all of us impact our corner of the world in a meaningful, significant way.

However, I would have never known this, had I not met Him personally and intimately, and begun following Him intentionally. This will be the key to living purposefully.

3. So if we boast, who are we to boast in? (v31) _____

CREATED FOR PURPOSE

Please do not be insulted or think that I'm calling you weak, foolish, or lowly! I am not. However, many people¹⁵ do not think that they could ever be used for anything special or of significance. We tend to think that God only uses “perfect special people,” people without baggage or without a past. Not average, ordinary people.

But according to Scripture, God delights in using the weak, the foolish, the lowly, and the despised. He does not necessarily call the people who are wise by human standards or those who are influential or of noble birth. He has no favorites.

4. Read Luke 2: 8-11. To whom did God first announce the birth of His Son, Jesus?

Please note, God did not announce the most important event in world history to kings or to the influential or those of noble birth. He gave the announcement of all announcements to shepherds. Shepherds were men without homes, with dirty clothes and dirt under their fingernails, living in fields, tending sheep.

GOD'S DESIRE FOR EACH OF US

5. What is God's desire for each of us?

a. John 1:12 _____

b. John 15:8 _____

c. What amount of fruit? _____

6. What do you think it means to “bear much fruit?”

Sweet sister, the God of the universe has ordained that your precious life bear fruit. And not just a little fruit, but much fruit.

Fruit bearing has nothing to do with grapes, apples and oranges. In other words, God has not appointed you to a mediocre, mundane life where you just muddle through and then die. Your life has been set apart for significance. God wants your life to count for all eternity. He wants your life to matter.

Noble Perry writes in his book, *Unleashed*¹⁶, “*God has called each one of us to embrace life, not merely to endure it. He wants us to have overwhelming victory*¹⁷, *to conquer sin and death*¹⁸, *to not get tired of doing the right thing*¹⁹, *and to make a difference rather than make excuses*²⁰.”

15 I used to think this way too

16 Unleashed, Noble Perry, Tyndale House Publishers 2012, p4

17 Romans 8:37

18 1 Corinthians 15:57

19 Galatians 6:9

20 Acts 22:16

“Bearing much fruit” is not just for the preachers and teachers and heroes of the world. It’s attainable for ALL of us. It’s what we were created for... it’s our purpose for being on planet earth. I’m sick of the enemy’s scheme of convincing believers that only a few lives in each generation are truly significant. This simply isn’t true. This contradicts what God’s Word says and is lie from the pit of hell.

“Bearing much fruit” will look differently for all of us. Just as no two fingerprints are alike, no two lives that bear fruit will look the same. We have to be careful of comparisons. But in different lives, bearing significant fruit will do the same thing.

7. What do all fruit-bearing lives do? _____

Though each one of us will bear fruit that looks differently from the other, God’s primary concern is that He be glorified. God is glorified most when people come to know Him personally and worship Him anew; when lives are restored and healed and bear witness to the fact of His Presence at work in homes, communities, schools, places of business, friendships, and churches.²¹ This, my friend, is a significant, fruitful life. We’ll go into greater detail about what that means as the study progresses.

God does not create mind-numb robots. He gives us the gift of free will to make choices for ourselves. He will never interfere with our free will. He allows us to live our lives as we please. It’s up to us if we desire to live fruit-bearing, purposeful lives. In fact, to live a life that bears fruit in this day and age will not happen automatically. You will have to be intentional about doing that.

“YOU WILL ALL SEE HEAVEN

BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH.
JOHN 1:51 NLT

YOUR LIFE IS NOT A COINCIDENCE

Since the beginning of time, every human being – regardless of economic, ethnic, or cultural background – was created to KNOW his or her Creator, the Living God of the Universe. We were not created to know Him through another person’s relationship; to just know Him academically, or from afar, or even through a religious experience. We were created to KNOW HIM in a vibrant personal relationship.

1. In whose image are we made? (Genesis 1:27) _____
2. Whom does God accept? (Acts 10:34-35) _____
3. Exodus 34:14 NLT, “God is passionate about His relationship with you.”

What are God’s feelings about being in relationship with us? _____

4. Ephesians 3:12 NLT, “Because of Christ and our faith in Him, we can now come fearlessly into God’s presence assured of His glad welcome.”
 - a. How can those who belong to Christ come into God’s presence?

 - b. What is God’s response? _____

As human beings, we are made in the image of the God of the universe. This same God does not show favoritism, but accepts people from every nation. And He is passionate about being in relationship with those who fear Him and do what is right. He loves us so much that He sent His only Son, Jesus, to Earth, so that all who receive and believe Him, can become children of the Most High God. When we become His child by faith, the Bible says we can FEARLESSLY come into God’s presence assured that He’s glad to see us.

STEP ONE: KNOW GOD PERSONALLY

The year was 1980. I was in the car with my neighbor’s mom as she took us home from school. Most every day, she talked about Jesus, the way to God’s heaven. She described sin as being the wrong things we do – such as disobeying or talking back to my parents or lying or cheating in school or fighting with my sister. I became very aware of the fact that I was guilty of this thing she called sin.

It was on one of those many trips home from school that I made the deliberate decision to ask Jesus into my life. I can still remember where I was as we rode down the city street when I prayed that one simple prayer. I didn’t understand everything about God, but I did understand three vitally important things:

1. I was a sinner and needed a way of being made right with God.
2. In order to be made right with God, I had to believe that Jesus is God’s Son.
3. I had to personally receive Jesus into my life.

FINDING HIM PERSONALLY

5. Read John 1:12 again. Who is the “Him” referred to in these verses? _____

6. What are the two qualifiers to being a child of God?

4. _____

5. _____

How easy to sit in church and think, “I’m a child of God.” Yet, the Bible is CLEAR on how we become children of God. And sadly, it contradicts what I hear through the media and sometimes through ministers, pastors, and priests who have said, “We are all God’s children.” The Bible says we are ALL God’s creation, but we are not all God’s children. Becoming a child of God is personal choice. This is the first step to bearing fruit.

7. This is a contradiction of what many of us have heard and known all our lives. Is it to you? Share your thoughts.

I don’t want you to assume that just because you are in this Bible study, or go to church each Sunday, or live a moral life, or have been baptized, that Jesus resides in your life. I’ve encountered many people who have assumed they are “Christians” because:

- Theoretically, we live in a Christian country.
- They attend church regularly.
- They’ve joined a church.
- They’ve been baptized.

- They live by the Golden Rule.
- Their mother or grandmother are strong believers.
- They've read the Bible.
- They're not Jewish or Muslim or Buddhist.
- They believe in God.

Believing in God is NOT ENOUGH. The Bible says that even the demons believe.²² Belief in Jesus, God's Son and His way of being made right with Him is the ONLY way to God's heaven. The Bible says:

John 14:6, Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." (Notice He says He is THE way, not A way.)

Acts 4:12, speaking of Jesus, "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

8. How does Today's Treasure Verse describe Jesus, the Son of Man?

Jesus is the stairway between heaven and earth. Jesus is the Way to the Father. There is no other name given to men by which we can be saved. The first step to living a life of purpose and an eternally significant life on earth is making sure you are a child of God!

If you cannot remember when you made the deliberate decision to believe and receive Christ, there may be a good chance that He's not there! Jesus is a gentleman. He does not push His way into our lives. Accepting God's way to heaven is an individual choice.

9. Can you remember when you made the deliberate decision to open the door of your heart to believe and receive Jesus? Would you be willing to share?

JUST TO BE SURE

Just in case you are not sure or perhaps you've forgotten... Or perhaps you were brought up in a religion that it was decided for you and are just not sure... Let's be sure together! It's really simple. With believing faith, bow your head now and tell God:

1. "I have done wrong things (called sin) and I want to turn, with Your help, Lord, from sin.
2. I believe Jesus is God's Son and way of being right with God.²³
3. I invite You now to come into my life." Amen.

You may not understand everything you'd like to understand about the Bible, Jesus or God. But that does not matter in God's eyes! If you have prayed this prayer with simple faith, you have just completed the first step of living the life and receiving ALL God desires to give you! Your eternal destiny has changed!²⁴ Rejoice!

²² James 2:19

²³ John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

CREATED FOR PURPOSE

Share this with someone, perhaps your Bible study leader or your friend if you prayed this today. I don't mean to sound morbid, but if you were to die today, you can confidently know that you would go to heaven. It's not a matter of, "I hope I'll go to heaven when I die." It's now a certainty. Please note, it is vital that you complete step one. If not, the rest of the study will be irrelevant and will not make sense to you.

STEP TWO: TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES

Read Acts 17:24-31

10. According to verse 26, what does God do? _____

11. What is His motive for doing this? _____

12. Is He far away? _____

13. What is His desire for each one of us? (verse 28) _____

According to Scripture, God Divinely places us:

In this century,

In this generation and

In the various places in the world in which we live...

So that we will seek Him and perhaps reach out for Him and find Him. You and I were placed on planet Earth strategically during this time period. Why? Because God knew that we might reach out for Him and find Him. Life is not a coincidence. Where you live; where you work; who your friends and your family are – all of that is NOT a coincidence. It has been set in motion by the God of the universe that we might live and move and have our being in Him.

14. What does to "live and move and have our being in Him," (Acts 17:28) mean to you?

Though we think God is far away, because He is invisible – He is not far. He is near and close, desiring that each one of us would live and move and have our being in Him. We will spend the rest of the study developing this concept. For "living and moving and having our being in Jesus" is what we were created for. God has a plan for your life. It is particular and specific in the location He has you.
